

AMS RELOCATES TO ATLANTA

Analytical Management Solutions Announces Corporate Headquarters Relocation to Atlanta

Alpharetta, GA, October 4th, 2004 – Analytical Management Solutions, an internationally recognized provider of project management consulting services for the construction, energy, and technology industries, is excited to announce the relocation of its corporate headquarters to Atlanta, Georgia. The move provides AMS with a truly national presence, strategically placing the organization in an excellent position to service all of their national and international clients more effectively. AMS continues to support our West Coast clients through their offices in Los Angeles, CA.

According to the March 2004 issue of “Inc. Magazine”, Atlanta ranks number one on the list of Cities Doing Business in America. The central premise behind the Top Cities ranking is that current and historical job growth is the most objective indicator of a region’s economic vitality for entrepreneurs. Joel Kotkin writes in the article that, “Atlanta epitomizes the characteristics of economic diversity and affordability.”

L. Alex Staley, President of AMS, spoke about the decision to relocate to Atlanta. “Our firm has found a way to grow in a tough economy by staying in tune with our clients’ needs, and continuing to provide a high level of service for our clients, regardless of where they are located. The relocation of our headquarters to Atlanta, while still maintaining our west coast presence, is in alignment with the firm’s growth strategy, and will undoubtedly take us to the next level.” He goes on to say, “Success stimulates growth, which is why we are also working on plans for future office locations in Dallas, Houston, and Miami.”
